1. Curso realizado desde mi propio perfil (sí, la de la foto soy yo).
2. Icono de progreso (círculo totalmente iluminado, que se va rellenando conforme completas secciones).
3. Muestro desplegable que demuestra que se han visionado al completo todos los vídeos.
4. Fecha y hora que coincide con la finalización del curso.

The screenshot shows the Udemy website interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays 'udemy.com/home/my-courses/archived/'. The Udemy logo and navigation links are visible. The main section is titled 'My learning' and includes tabs for 'All courses', 'My Lists', 'Wishlist', 'Archived', and 'Learning tools'. The 'Archived' tab is selected, showing a course card for 'Ansible Basics: An Automation Technical Overview' by Red Hat, Inc. The course is marked as '100% complete' and has a '4' star rating. Below the course card, there is a section titled 'Teach the world online' with a 'Teach on Udemy' button. The footer contains various links such as 'Udemy Business', 'Careers', 'Terms', 'Privacy policy', 'Cookie settings', 'Sitemap', and 'Accessibility statement'. Logos for Nasdaq, VW, box, NetApp, and eventbrite are also present.

1. Desde la página de Udemy, puede demostrarse el progreso del curso vinculado a mi perfil de alumna (DG=Diana García, me percaté tarde de que, al seguir el modelo anglosajón en el registro, han tratado mi primer apellido como si fuera mi nombre compuesto).
2. Queda recogido el curso como completado al 100% y mi valoración del mismo (4 estrellas de 5, me hubiera gustado que tuviera actividades prácticas).

Otro visionado de haber completado el curso. El visionado de esta pantalla se encuentra condicionado al visionado de todos los vídeos.

Contenido práctico:

Aunque era opcional, realizo esta parte de la tarea porque me interesaba “trastear” la herramienta, y lograr tener una visión más clara de cómo funciona, justo lo que había echado en falta en la formación anterior.

1. Realizado en mi perfil.
2. En la ruta facilitada de Instruct.com.

3. Progreso 100% completado. Si no completas todas las actividades exactamente como te indican, no te dejan pasar de pantalla.
